Last Chance! Eurail Early bird Promotion

Remember the Eurail Early bird Promotion will soon be coming to an end.....

You still have up to 31 March 2007 to book this promotion, which entitles the traveller to one extra day free with the purchase of a Eurail Select Pass 6, 8, or 10 days validity.

BritRail Guest Pass Promotion

This promotion, valid since last year, has actually been slightly changed in 2007 to make it even more attractive, however the concept remains the same: to offer you and one of your British friends/relatives to travel at a great price.

With the 2007 BritRail Guest Pass Promotion

- both you and your British friend/relative benefit from a 25% discount on the price of a regular pass
- you can travel in first or in standard class

PASSES

New Eurail Passes as from 01 April 2007

We are very pleased to announce that the Eurail Range will be expanding as from 01 April with two new regional passes:

- Eurail Germany-Poland
- Eurail Czech Republic-Germany

Both passes offer:

- travel in 1st or 2nd class
- 5, 6, 8 or 10 days in 2 months' validities
- a youth fare in 2nd class (for adults under 26 years of age)
- a saver formula for 2 adults (or more) traveling together
- a 50% discount on the adult price for children between 4 and 11

They also entitle travellers to benefit from bonuses in Germany, as with other Eurail passes.

New prices for Amtrak Passes - 01 April

As was the case last year, Amtrak pass prices will change on 01 April 2007. (The current prices are valid for sale up to 31 March 2007) The price change will occur based on the selling date and not the traveling date - this makes the change over much simpler.
